1. Challenge

When Percy gives Luke Annabeth's dagger, Kronos takes over and kills Annabeth. In rage, Percy draws on as much power as he can and completely destroys Luke's body, ending Kronos' and Luke's life. When the gods show up, they find Percy kneeling over the body of Annabeth. The fates flash in, stating that Percy must be made a god, so the gods make Percy a god. When the fates tell him what his domains are to be, he is surprised that he is the God of time, loyalty, victory, the elements, and heroes. The fates flash him to the domain of time where he meets Chronos, the primordial god of time. Chronos states that he is fading and needs another being to take the mantle of time. Percy asks why him, and Chronos says that he is loyal and not power-hungry and paranoid like Kronos was. Chronos also offers to send him back in time to fix his mistakes, hide his godly aura, and give him the knowledge of all his abilities when he becomes a primordial god. Percy gladly accepts and is sent back in time to when he was twelve, only now he is a primordial god.
